COUNTY.

Associate Judge—R. BRUCE CRAWFORD.
Prothonotary—JOHN H. ROBERTSON.
Sheriff—JOHN W. JAMIESON.

FROM THE STATE CAPITOL.

HARRISBURG, April 10, 1899.
Ten days more of legislative work and the present session ends. That ten days will be crowded with work each morning...

When this school question was up in the House, Capt. Skinner, member from Fulton, made the remark that in his county school teachers could get boarding for $5.00 per month.

After the result had been officially declared, the convention proceeded to the election of a Chairman of the County Committee for the ensuing year.

My judgment is that no change will be made until after Quay's trial. If acquitted, and the majority opinion is that he will be, he will be elected with votes to spare.

Under Democratic rule who would have had the hardihood to propose so much as a $1 dinner even? What a wide divergence from the soup house idea.

It is only under Republican prosperity that Democrats can discuss Jeffersonian dinners at $10 or even $1 a plate.

REPUBLICAN PRIMARY ELECTION.

The Republicans of Forest County held their primaries last Saturday, and yesterday afternoon the return judges assembled at the court house for the purpose of canvassing the vote and declaring the result.

THE CONVENTION.

Chairman Cook called the convention to order promptly at 2 p. m., and named J. T. Dale and Leon Watson as Secretaries.

RESOLUTIONS.

The Republicans of Forest county in convention assembled hereby re-affirm their adherence to the principles of their party adopted by the St. Louis convention.

RESOLUTIONS.

We hereby endorse the administration of President McKinley and his able and patriotic efforts in bringing to a successful termination the war with Spain.

RESOLUTIONS.

We are unanimously opposed to any departure from the well established rule of the Republican party, that of majority rule, and view with alarm the disposition of some of its prominent members to depart from this time-honored principle.

RESOLUTIONS.

The death of Justice Stephen J. Field, of the United States Supreme Court, occurred at his home on Capitol Hill, Washington, D. C., Sunday evening last at 6 o'clock.

ACCORDING to the Philadelphia Press Dr. Swallow has sufficiently recovered from his late illness to be able to advise his friends that he will not be a candidate for any State office this year.

THE QUAY TRIAL.

The Quay trial was begun before Judge Biddle in the Philadelphia courts on Monday of this week. Two hours were spent in selecting a jury, and but one witness was called on Monday. It is thought the trial will last all week.

AS SEEN from a Democratic standpoint, the situation is thus described by the Clarion Jacksonian: "However bitter the knowledge may be the fact that Quay seems to be winning in nearly all of the counties where a test of strength has been made which will tend naturally to encourage his followers for they can reasonably conclude that their course is backed by party sentiment.
